Lenten Reflection: "What relationship is there between mercy and justice?": "Mercy is an element that is important, even indispensable, for human relationships, so that brotherhood may exist. Justice on its own is not enough. With mercy and forgiveness, God goes beyond justice; he subsumes it and exceeds it in a higher state through which we experience love, which is at the root of true justice." (Pope Francis: "The Name of God is Mercy." Pub. Bluebird, 2016).

Lectio Divina: Next meeting: Tues. Mar. 1st at 7pm.
