JOIN THE DOMINICAN LAITY & BE PART OF THE DOMINICAN FAMILY

Members of the Dominican Laity, also known as Lay Dominicans or Lay Fraternities of St. Dominic, are men and women, both single and married, who live a Christian life inspired by the spirituality of St. Dominic (founder of the Order of Preachers) in the secular world. They are part of the larger Dominican family, which includes friars, nuns, apostolic sisters, the youth movement, priestly fraternities, and secular institutes, and are committed to the mission of preaching the Gospel and promoting the truth of Christ. Lay Dominicans are members of the Dominican Order, sharing in its spiritual benefits, prayers, and mission, and are supported by the friars and nuns in their spiritual journey.

Membership in the Dominican Laity is open to practising Catholics who are at least 18 years old and seeking to deepen their spiritual life and commitment to the Church. With over 80,000 members worldwide, the Dominican Laity continues to play a vital role in the Church's mission, especially in promoting truth, combating falsehood, and fostering holiness in everyday life.

For more information on how to join the Dominican Laity, please contact Fr Michael or Fr Jude for more information.
